

SOLIDARITY NIGHT FOR ANTI-WAR ACTIVISTS IMPRISONED IN IRAN

Sarah, Shane & Josh: three anti-war activists from the US have been held in an Iranian prison, without charges, for nearly a year. Through their films, photography, writing, and lives, the three have spent years contesting US aggression in the Middle East and around the world. The US government has done little to get them out, so now it's up to us.

Hear their friend who was with them on the trip tell their untold story, and see their work on social struggles in Iraq, Palestine, Darfur, Mexico, and the US.

Film, talk and discussion.....
